

Interested in Counter-Terrorism, Homeland Security, and/or Public Policy?
Considering a career in the federal government?

Apply Now to
The Federal Semester Program 2010-2011
All majors welcome!

Federal Semester students

- Take a 3-credit seminar on federal policy led by an industry expert in the fall
- Complete a 3-6 credit internship in the spring, with stipend support
- Get an intimate look at policymakers in action while visiting Capitol Hill and federal agency headquarters
- Cultivate professional development skills

Homeland Security Policy students discussed DHS oversight while visiting Capitol Hill.

Internship sites include

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

Federal Emergency
Management Agency

U.S. Navy
Office of Information

Department of State
Bureau of Near Eastern Affairs

Department of Homeland Security
Office of Infrastructure Protection

Doing this program was the best decision I've made in college... I really appreciated having a special office and program just for the federal government."

—2009-2010 Federal Semester student

Four concentrations offered

Homeland Security Policy | U.S. Policy in the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict | Health Policy |
Energy and Environmental Policy (NEW)

For details and application see: <http://www.federalsemester.umd.edu>